MONDAY, NOVEMBER 4

Global Regulatory Issues in Gene Therapy Development

The goal of this program is to explore solutions to challenges experienced both by global regulators and by sponsors developing gene therapies across established and emerging markets. Scheduled topics include identifying differences in regulatory requirements and areas of opportunity for greater convergence of regulatory frameworks.

Member - $200.00 Nonmember - $250.00

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Perspectives on Payment Policies for Gene Therapies

This program will address the status of legislative and regulatory solutions to the primary challenges in paying for gene therapies for different payer types (Medicaid, Medicare, and commercial payers), as well as the current state of Medicaid reimbursement policies for these therapies.

Member - $200.00 Nonmember - $250.00

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6

Ethical, Societal, and Policy Issues in Germline Gene Editing

A variety of stakeholders will present and discuss considerations surrounding germline gene editing, including current legal status for clinical research in the US and throughout the world; recent proposals to limit clinical applications; and potential mechanisms necessary to achieve societal consensus.

Member - $200.00 Nonmember - $250.00
